

Mrs Padbury

The things people love and admire about me

- being patient and helpful
- treating everyone with kindness
- keeping positive attitude through tough times
- noticing the small things

What makes me happy

- Being with my family
- Having time to read a book
- Planting flowers in my garden

 pengreencentre for children and families

How I like to be supported

I like to work in a happy and calm environment. I like when others treat me with kindness and respect.